

Privacy Act Statement. Every registration statement, short form registration statement, supplemental statement, exhibit, amendment, dissemination report, copy of political propaganda or other document or information filed with the Attorney General under this act is a public record open to public examination, inspection and copying during the posted business hours of the Registration Unit in Washington, D.C. One copy is automatically provided to the Secretary of State pursuant to Section 6(b) of the Act, and copies of such documents are routinely made available to other agencies, departments and Congress pursuant to Section 6(c) of the Act. Finally, the Attorney General transmits an annual report to the Congress on the Administration of the Act which lists the names of all agents and the nature, sources and content of the political propaganda disseminated or distributed by them. This report is available to the public.

Public Reporting Burden. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 1.5 hours per response, including the time for reviewing instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to Chief, Registration Unit, Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, Washington, D.C. 20530; and to the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs, Office of Management and Budget, Washington, D.C. 20503.

AMENDED AND RESTATED ATTACHMENT NO. 4 (RESPONSE TO ITEM 12)
To Supplemental Report for Period Ending June 7, 1988

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity as defined below?

Yes X No

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

The registrant rendered advice and counseling to Alitalia concerning the promotion of Alitalia's commercial interests in connection with bilateral aviation matters between the United States and Italian governments. During the reporting period the registrant had several conversations with staff personnel of the Department of Transportation, which were confined to obtaining information concerning existing U.S. Government interpretations and policies.

On behalf of Middle East Airlines, the registrant arranged and attended courtesy visits on March 23, 1988, made by Messrs. Emile Mazzawi and Salim Salaam, officers of Middle East Airlines, with Mimi Weyforth Dawson, Deputy Secretary of Transportation and Matthew V. Scocozza, Assistant Secretary of Transportation for Policy and International Affairs.

On behalf of Toshiba Corporation ("Toshiba"), the registrant met and/or had telephone conversations with the U.S. Government officials and journalists identified in the following table. During the reporting period the registrant also communicated with individual members of the public and representatives of U.S. industry on behalf of Toshiba. The purpose of these communications, all of which took place in Washington, D.C. on the dates specified, was to present Toshiba's position in opposition to certain legislative proposals pending in the U.S. Congress to impose trade sanctions on Toshiba in connection with Toshiba Machine Co., Ltd.'s involvement in the export of high-technology equipment to the Soviet Union.

During the reporting period, a partner of the registrant, James R. Jones, authored an article entitled "Punishing Toshiba Would Hurt Us All," which was published in the February 14, 1988 edition of Roll Call, a publication circulated to Members of Congress and their Staff. Mr. Jones, present in Tokyo, Japan to meet with representatives of Toshiba and the Japanese Government and for other business purposes, also met in Tokyo with Representative Thomas Foley on April 7, 1988 and April 10, 1988; with Representative Robert Michel on April 7, 1988; with Senator John D. Rockefeller IV on April 9, 1988; and with Staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on April 12, 1988. Mr. Jones also was interviewed in Los Angeles, California, on January 16, 1988 by CNN.

On behalf of Falconbridge Limited and its subsidiary Falconbridge Dominicana, C. por A. ("Falconbridge"), the registrant met and/or had telephone conversations with officials and staff of the U.S. Departments of State and Commerce, the National Security Council and the Office of the United States Trade Representative, including those U.S. Government officials at the policy level set forth below. In each case, the purpose of these contacts was to determine U.S. policy in respect of actions proposed to be taken by the Government of the Dominican Republic which would adversely affect Falconbridge's investment in that country and to seek to influence such officials to adopt positions favorable to Falconbridge's interests.
